

got voluntary?

Yeah, actually, we do. (Thanks for asking!)

Do you want to engage brokers with current product, service and thought leadership information on Reliance Standard's Voluntary product/service portfolio?

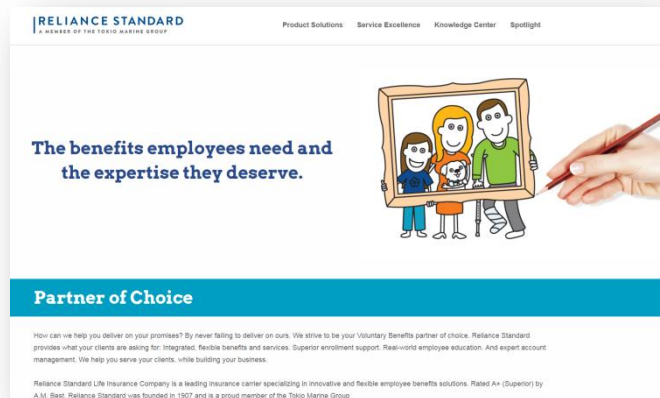

Are you tired of printing materials you're not sure are current any longer and leaving them around like umbrellas on a sunny day?

Do you absolutely HATE our website?

Great news! Our Voluntary Microsite (you may remember, launched in January):

- Contains up to date information/ materials ONLY on Voluntary.
- Is branded to align with our current market-facing materials.
- Contains refreshed thought leadership penned by RSL subject matter experts.
- Has documents that can be downloaded in a snap (well, a click actually).
- Is mobile-responsive so you can view it beautifully on your smartphone or tablet – from anywhere.

Surf to Voluntary.RelianceStandard.com or scan this code. Start promoting among brokers. Contact David Gittelman with questions.

Draw on our flexible solutions.
